

Lt Gen (Retd) Jawahar Lal Malhotra

DAV Shimla alumnus of 1951

Lt Gen Malhotra was commissioned into Sikh Regiment in 1957. Served with 5 Sikh on counter insurgency operations in Nagaland and later defended Chamb in 1971& commanded 1 Sikh. Later while commanding 7Division in Punjab he initiated successful induction of his troops into combating terrorism which eventually brought peace.

After retiring in 1994 he assumed the role a Philanthropic General and helped Col Vohra's Prosthetic Centre, Zirakpur near Chandigarh. He helped approx. 400 people to get artificial limbs, wheel chairs and other prosthetics.

He is associated with organization sponsoring quality education for deserving students and more than 1200 students have been awarded. He wishes to spend his entire earnings for the philanthropic causes.

